Présentation de l'éditeur

Inspired by the 2012 London Olympic Games, young artist Ugo Gattoni intricately illustrates a cycle race through the streets of London, England. With a motley crew of characters, ranging from elite athletes to cycle couriers, commuters, bankers, delivery boys, mums with kids, youths on stolen mountain bikes, fashionistas and hipsters on fixed gear bikes - this is no ordinary road race! Unfolds to nearly 2 meters in length, with intricate drawings on both sides, it forms, overall, a continuous scene of almost 4 metres ! The ideal gift for any cycling enthusiast or art lover. Biographie de l'auteur

Ugo Gattoni grew up in Vitry sur Seine in the southern suburbs of Paris, France. Having studied Graphic Design at the EPSAA in Paris, he graduated in 2010 and decided to make his way in the world as an illustrator and artist. His first major exhibition included one enormous wall-sized drawing, 33 feet long and 6 feet high, rendered entirely with a black fine-liner pen. Ugo has since gained a reputation for his detailed and surreal black and white cityscapes and recently completed a live drawing project at the prestigious Hayward Gallery on London's Southbank. He has worked on big projects for Nissan (with close friend and collaborator Mcbess) and also has many clients in the fashion and music industries. Ugo is the proud owner of a fixed gear bike that he built himself !
